WINTER SUNSHINE

Looking westerly to the south
This pleasant room, ample enough
That paints my day in blue and green
And quiets my flesh with winter sun
This walled space that shields what I am
And shelters what I have that counts,
That so surrounds and covers me,
While serving as the place I live, is where I slowly cease to be.
My genie waits, geared for combat.
Drowsily, from noon descending,
I watch my friends, the winter birds.
Reading from a toy pagoda,
Inheritors of open space,
Travelers light upon the air
These friends—when I think about them—
Like me are captive of what it is
Not to know this is their freedom.

Are There Life Long Friends?

Tear us apart
Break away
Friends were never meant to stay
The things we've shared
The games we've played
It seems they happened yesterday
We were close friends or so I thought
But now we seem to grow apart
The times we've sat and talked of boys
We shared our dreams our hopes and joys

But now we seem to fight with fears, of growing up and meeting peers
Our childhood friends can't understand the changes that have come
The gap between us can not heal and so we turn and run

We used to think just like one, but now we think as two
We're growing up and meeting boys and only one will do

Que' Sera they say to me, but does it have to end the future looks so drab and dull
Without a life long friend
It's time to say our last good-bye, what am I to do
I want to grab that last small piece of life I shared with you

Forget it times are over, friends will never stay
It's time to live our own lives and go our separate ways
Good-bye I say to a friend I once held dear to me
Our friendships cracked and shattered only you now hold the key.

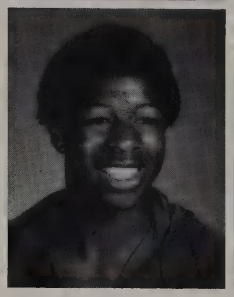
Our Best Is Yet To Come . . .



The Road

Lefu Tei
Charles Teller

Because our lives are cowardly and sly,
Because we do not dare to take or give,
Because we scowl and pass each other by,
We do not dare to live.

We dive, each man, into his secret house,
And bolt the door, and listen in affright,
Each timid man beside a timid spouse,
With timid children huddled out of sight.

Olga Tellez
Ann Thornberg

Let us go out and walk upon the road,
And quit forevermore the brick-built den,
And lock and key, the hidden, sly abode
That separates us from our fellow-men.

And by contagion of the sum we may
Catch at a spark from that primeval fire,
And learn that we are better than our clay,
And equal to the peaks of our desire.

For Our Senior Year,

Another Year

Let us learn how little there is to fear
From the competition of conflicting seasons—
And avoid comparisons,
Alone in that still place
The slender quietness of the old bushes
Is a virtue all its own . . .

The MCJROTC Units are based on the traditions and history of the United States Marine Corps.

The objectives of the MCJROTC program are designed and intended to help the cadets develop into informed and responsible citizens, to develop and enhance leadership traits, strengthen character, form habits of self discipline and to develop a respect for, and an understanding of the need of constituted authority in a democratic society.

The El Camino High School Cadets are exemplified by their high standards of conduct, their willingness to help in any undertaking, pride of the members and 100% effort to maintain these standards.

The 1979-80 A.S.B. Council was instrumental in providing the El Camino student body with a number of entertaining and educational programs. Under the respected leadership of President Ed Hartley, the council spent many hours planning such activities as Homecoming, the nominating convention, pep rallies, assemblies, and dances. Also, issues such as the litter problem at school, and smoking on campus were profoundly looked into, and sometimes resolved by the council.

Many of those ideas were generated at a summer camp workshop in the Cuyamaca Mountains. (Upper left) Council members prepare for an intense planning session. (Upper right) A.S.B. adviser Mr. Meyerhoff finds some friendly wildlife in the forest. (Lower left) Some of the female members on the council take time out from their rugged mountain climb. (Lower right) All of the hard work at camp seems to have been worthwhile as another "successful" rally nears completion with Ed Hartley and Tammy Spearman leading the alma mater.

The greatest pride came, however, when the council found that, in working together, they could establish better relations with teachers, staff, and most important, the El Camino student body itself.

So many faces we have seen,
  Some are fighting for their lives,
While others fight for their dreams,
  Don't know who they are,
Or where their road will turn,
  Some are blind from hate and lies,
They've got so much to learn,
  But we can see that,
There's no mountain too high,
  And no river too deep,
Only faith is the answer,
  We can get there if we pay the price,
Let us say there will be changes,
  Changes that we have never seen before,
Spite the negatives of today, be positive,
  We know we can make it,
It all depends on you,
  And all depends on us.

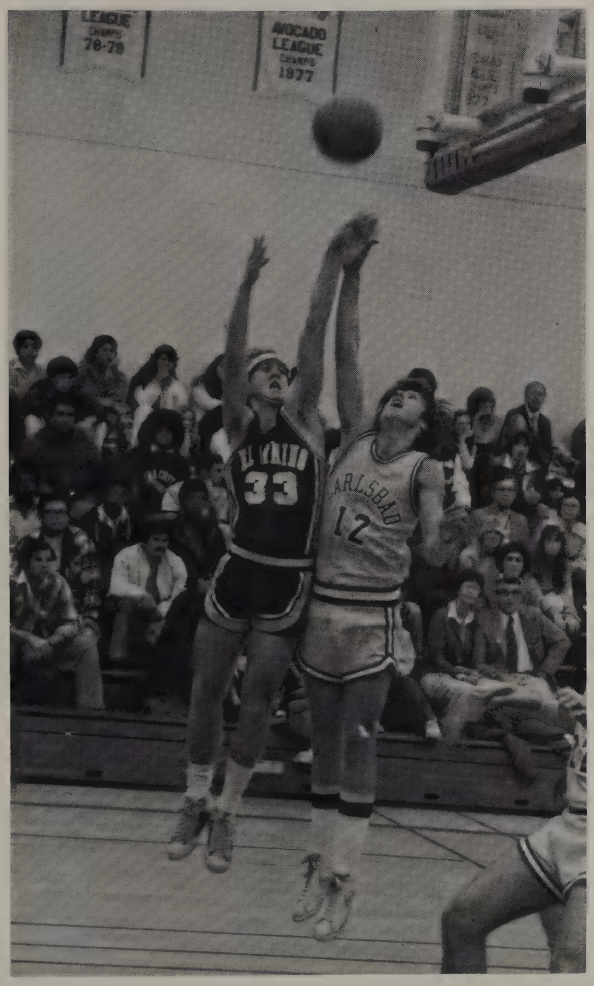
VARSITY IN ACTION!



The 1979-80 Varsity basketball team had their ups and downs. Under the direction of Mr. Hal Larsen, the Wildcats got off to a slow start but improved each game. One of their biggest highlights of the year was when they defeated the Fallbrook Warriors in the opening round of the James Mitchell Tournament. Leading the Wildcats this year were Ron Sloan who played inside, and shooting outside for the Wildcats were Eddie Hartley and Richard Parker. The team is also looking forward to a better season next year.

Defense has been a big part of the girls winning season. Also team concept pulled their wins together.

The girls played ball giving each other the support they needed. The J.V. Softball team also had a 4-1 record with a lot of team support. The coaches Janis Johnson and Doc Balderrama gave the girls the confidence they needed.

The El Camino Varsity Soccer team was chasing a playoff spot in the Avocado League. The team was hampered by the lack of high scoring experienced forward. The fullbacks though inexperienced and hurting by injuries were doing a good job. Tom Miro, Jerry Davis and Jim Cooley formed the strength of the defense. The midfield of Charlie Bunn, Johnny Rivera and Jose Cortez gave El Camino the edge in most games. Individually Victor Nuno, Ray Restrepo, Chaidan Bhukden and Johnny Salazar did a good job on attacking.

We had a young team and the field leadership usually given by seniors was lacking due to the lack of seniors with previous varsity experience. The lack of scoring has created many low scoring games and unusual number of tied games this season. Our games were such that we couldn't afford any mistakes by the defense. The soccer team hopes to have a better season next year.

WRESTLING

The Wildcats Wrestling team proved to be extremely competitive considering the lack of experience. With only 2 Var. Lettermen returning it was a big suprise to find the team challenging O'side and Carlsbad for the league title.

Having great enthusiasm helped lead the teams way. Leading the team were seniors Mark Buckman, Ken Elderts, and Mike Wloczewski, as well as Junior Steve McAtee.

The J.V. and Frosh teams also had very good years. Both teams were in the thick of the league championship race.

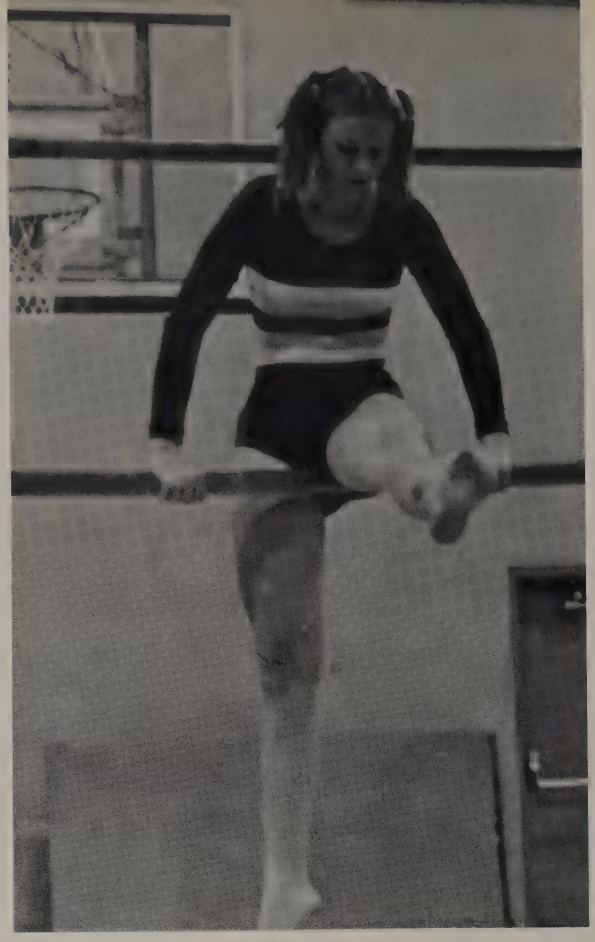
TUMBLING IN SEASON!



This years gymnastics team was the most promising here at El Camino. The coaching staff consisted of head coach Anne Neste and asst. coach Yvonne Talles. A former El Camino gymnast.

Among the standouts on the team were Judy Carpenter and Regan Healey.

The most outstanding member on the team turned out to be freshman Diana Stanton. Her experience and skill shined all through the season.

Next years team should be just as strong with only three graduating seniors; optional gymnast Holly Richardson being the first four year varsity letterperson in gymnastics, varsity gymnast Tammy Garrett; and junior varsity gymnast Heidi Germann.

SWIMMING

The 1980 Boys Swim team survives because of the enthusiasm of this years team members. The future existence of the team was in doubt with last years team of only 7 members. But the future looks bright with this years new recruits.

The team was short on experience, but the teams goal was to improve each season. The team looks forward to a more progressive season next year.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

This year's girls basketball team started off with a winning game for their beginning season. The coaches were Jim Stant and Ray Johnson. Mr. Stant was the head coach this year and had many new ideas that he put to work on his Varsity team.

Mr. Johnson also did the same with his J.V. team. The teams this year had many returning players, many of them being on Varsity. The two teams have a lot of spirit and really encourage each other. They're looking forward to a successful season next year.

TRACK TEAM SPRINTS

The Boys Track team did very well overall in the 1980 season. Head coach Martin Nolasco, and assistant coaches Tom Sprink, Mr. Vega and Cathy Janecek worked very hard with the team so that they could perform to the best of their ability. Such Varsity standouts as Joey Nolasco, Eddie Hartley, Bruce Mitchell, Nate Lumpkin, Lance Fanciulla, and Jerry Davis among others, helped bring pride to their Wildcat team.

Each member of the team worked hard everyday after school, and many made great progress.

The Girls Track team proved to have a good 1980 season too. Consistent practice and determination enabled the Varsity and J.V. teams to make tremendous progress.

Talented standouts such as Yvette Fajardo, Eileen Vasquez, Beverly Wood, Cheryl Marquois, Sharra Lambert, Tammy Spearman, and Karen Lambert definitely deserve credit for such fine performances. Both teams are anxious for a successful season next year.

EL CAMINO GOLF TEAM

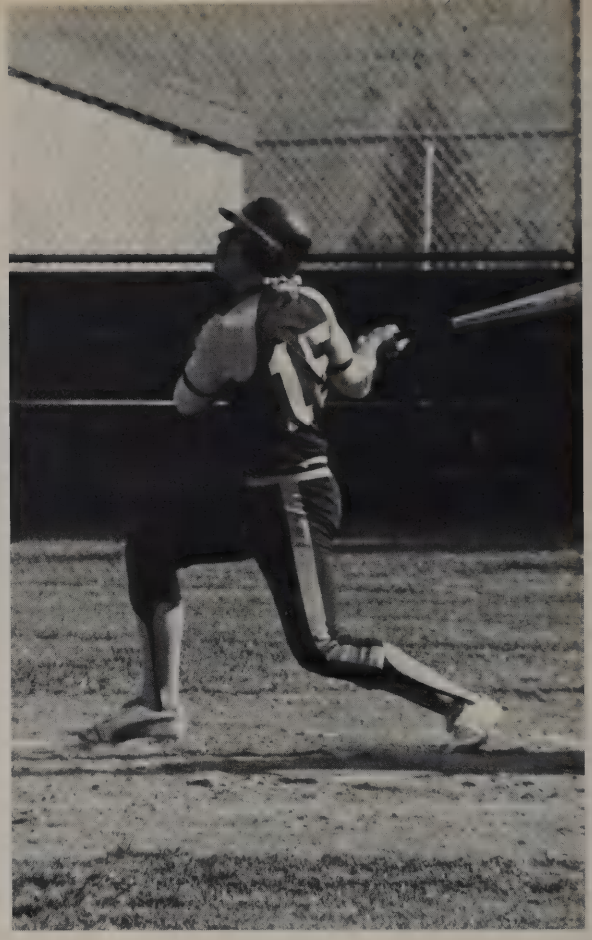
GOLF TEAM TEES UP FOR A GOOD SEASON!

The 79/80 El Camino Golf Team was the best to come along in several years. Led by Senior John Portman, the Wildcats had a good season. Backing up John in the quest for a league title was Senior Celine Cooper and Junior Robert Gibney, Dan Wheeler and Kerry Olmstead, and Sophomore Chris Barbour.

The Wildcat J.V. team also had talent in golfers, like Chris Hart and Jeff Kibler, which made coach Bob Nelson optimistic about seasons to come.

PLAY BALL!

EL CAMINO BASEBALL TEAM



1980 "Wildcats" Baseball Team

Coach Downey's view of the 1980 baseball team was one of apprehension. Could the underclassmen prove to be a successful baseball team, with only three returning letterman of the 1979 team. They were Gie Hayes, Marlo Fegueroa and Terry Flemming. Things looked bleak. But the J.V. team coming off a good season seemed to take up the slack on the missing lettermen. These were Mark Theodorf, Mike Mitchell, Jason Loreth, Kirk Maxfield, Carl Michalkieweiz, Mark Buckman, Paul Clements, Brett Hollywood, Mark Williamson, John Pelezarski, Bill Long and Sophomore Tom Green off of the Frosh Team.

It proved to be a team of hitting and baserunning. Pitching was a little weak, which is the case of most teams. Also there were some things on the defense that had to be worked out. But with the able assistance of Gene Cook, and Arron Marcy, assistant Varsity Coaches, a lot of these problems were taken care of.

The future looks good for the "horsehiders", being a young team full of enthusiasm and talent.

TENNIS TEAM . . .

BOYS TENNIS

El Camino Wildcat Boys tennis team had a very good season. With only a few returning players, their coach, Janis Johnson is very proud of how well they progressed. They worked hard after school for about 3 hours a day. Each member of the team was a winner just for being out there and practicing. Some of the standouts are senior Jon Olsen, Juniors Marc Buyer, Jim Howard, Robbie Farris, Mike Eakes, Jeff Farley and Mike Causeaux, and Sophomore Steve Melbourne.

The team looks very promising for next season with only senior Jon Olsen leaving. With all hope, the guys will be returning next year for a more successful year.

Cast Your Fate To The Wind

A month of nights, a year of days. Octobers drifting into waves. I set my sail when the tide comes in and I just cast my fate to the wind.

I shift my course along the breeze, won't sail up wind on memories, the empty sky is my best friend and I just cast my fate to the wind.

There never was, there couldn't be, a place in time for men like me. Who drink the dark and nab the day and let their wildest dreams blow away.

Hello Again,

I miss you so much. I wish you liked me; but somehow I can't get that across to you.

I wish I could tell you exactly how I feel; but somehow words come so hard to me now. I wish you were here with me.

It's not just that I'm alone or anything; It's just that I seem to be so lost without you.

I really need someone to turn to.

My world seems so empty without you.

I hope you don't think this is too loving, or anything; but I just want to express how I feel.

It's so hard at times to try to talk to someone.

In fact, at times I can look into your eyes and know how you feel, and what you're thinking.

Well I don't want to make this too long; and I'm at a loss for words at this point in time. But if I should think of something special to say, I won't hesitate to tell you.

Lines from—
"ELEGY WRITTEN IN A COUNTRY CHURCH YARD"

For them no more the blazing hearth shall burn,
Or busy housewife ply her evening care:
No children run to lisp their sire's return,
Or climb his knee the envied kiss to share.
Nor you, ye proud, impute to these the fault,
If memory o'er their tomb no trophies raise,
Where through the long-drawn aisle and fretted vault
The pealing anthem swells the note of praise.

GOING AWAY

I see you now. What a smile, but soon it won't be there. Cause you're going now; and leaving me.

Soon you'll be in your dreamland place thinking about me I know.

I'll write to you and you to me, but somehow it won't be the same.

So I hope you know how much I miss you because its so hard to say good-bye.

Tomorrow will be a new beginning. Soon I'll see you, a special feeling that's a part of my life.

I want to touch you and hold you but I can't handle rejection. I feel like a nothing when I'm around you, but we are all equal and nothing can change that.

Placing you on a pedestal would be a truly worth while gesture, for as I look up to you in a special kind of way.

I admire you so dearly dearly, you are someone I am deprived of. I need you! Not a need by force; but a need by cherish.

I cherish you from the bottom of my heart. Please understand that these words are meant for one in the world except for a dreamer such as I.

Busy Year For Custodians

Left to right: Charlie Norris, Henry Papaia, Meredith Watson, Stan Chesna, Bud Bailey, Ralph Bartley, Rocky Aukuso, Richard Vasquez, T. Seau. Not pictured: Elmer Greves, Lee Oliver.

The custodians at El Camino High School should be greatly appreciated by the faculty and students. They have helped so much in keeping El Camino one of the cleanest campuses in the North County, and no one appreciates the job that they are doing. Everyone just takes them for granted and the students of El Camino should be honored to have the custodian staff in this year's yearbook.

Darren,

Theres really not much I can say. Cause you've heard it all before, but I'll try! In the past year you have made me happy I only hope that I have or can make you as happy as I am. I'm glad we got or I got every-thing that was bugging me out, cause now I really do feel much better and more confidant and I must admit I didn't really trust you but since I told you how I felt and what I wanted, I trust you more because of what you said you wanted! Darren, its really hard for me to tell you exactly how much you mean to me but I guess you know. I just wish I could find the words to say it. I'm sorry for the pain I have caused you but just think of all the good times we've had to make up for the bad. We're so much alike and yet we're so different. Maybe that's why we've lasted and will last! As for this summer all we can do is have patience w/each other and take each day as it comes I know w/a little help from above we'll survive this coming year! Just remember my love for you is stronger than anything! Stay sweet and mine. Forever yours

Nanci Marie
